

New Zealand and the Asia Pacific Economy

Asia Pacific Regional Economic Integration and Architecture Conference

The new Executive Director of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Secretariat Ambassador Mohammed Noor Yacob and other eminent speakers from around the region will discuss the importance of greater economic integration in the Asia Pacific and New Zealand's place in the emerging regional economic architecture.

Speakers will address:

- The role of APEC in the last two decades of Asia Pacific development and its future role in securing regional prosperity and stability;
- The outlook for new initiatives such as the Closer Economic Partnership for East Asia and the Trans-Pacific Strategic Economic Partnership;
- Current and future challenges for institutions in the Asia Pacific region.

When:

Thursday, 25 March 2010, 1.00 pm – 6.00 pm

Where:

Room 206, Level 2

The University of Auckland Business School

Owen G Glenn Building

12 Grafton Road, Auckland

How to Register:

Attendance at the conference is free and open to all, but as seating is limited, please register your intention to attend by sending your name and contact details to robyn.rintoul@mfat.govt.nz by 12 March with 'RSVP REI Conference' in the subject line.

Sponsored and organised by:

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade

The New Zealand Asia Institute

The University of Auckland
Business School

The New Zealand Committee of the Pacific Economic Cooperation
Council