About the Ministry
The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (the Ministry) acts in the world to make New Zealand safer and more prosperous. It does this by working to understand geopolitical changes across the world, advancing the Government’s international priorities, and providing advice to the Government on its implications. By building connections and influence in other countries we act to promote and protect New Zealand’s interests.

The New Zealand Aid Programme delivers New Zealand’s official support for developing countries. The purpose of New Zealand’s aid is to develop shared prosperity and stability in the Pacific and beyond, drawing on the best of New Zealand’s knowledge and skills.

We support sustainable development in developing countries to reduce poverty and contribute to a more secure, equitable and prosperous world.

The New Zealand Aid Programme is managed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MFAT), represented in Kiribati by the New Zealand High Commission.

The Post represents the New Zealand Government to the highest standards of professional excellence in diplomacy, trade negotiations, international development and consular services. We seek to deliver value to New Zealand and New Zealanders, through:

- improved prosperity for New Zealand and our region
- the stability, security and resilience of our country, our people and our region
- leadership by amplifying New Zealand’s influence and standing in the world
- kaitiakitanga or stewardship, by delivering solutions to global challenges for the benefit of present and future generations.

Our values are:

Impact
- We achieve for New Zealand, everyday, everywhere

Kotahitanga
- We draw strength from our diversity

Courage
- We do the right thing

Manaakitanga
- We honour and respect others
Diversity and Inclusion

We aspire to be a workplace that values and utilises diverse and inclusive thinking, people and behaviours. This means that our staff reflect the diversity of New Zealand and the countries we work in, and that the contributions of staff with diverse backgrounds, experiences, skills and perspectives are valued and respected.
