About the Ministry
The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (the Ministry) acts in the world to make New Zealand safer and more prosperous. It does this by working to understand geopolitical changes across the world, advancing the Government’s international priorities, and providing advice to the Government on its implications. By building connections and influence in other countries we act to promote and protect New Zealand’s interests.

We seek to deliver value to New Zealand and New Zealanders, through:

- improved prosperity for New Zealand and our region
- the stability, security and resilience of our country, our people and our region
- leadership by amplifying New Zealand’s influence and standing in the world
- kaitiakitanga or stewardship, by delivering solutions to global challenges for the benefit of present and future generations.

Our values are:

Impact
- We achieve for New Zealand, everyday, everywhere

Kotahitanga
- We draw strength from our diversity

Courage
- We do the right thing

 Manaakitanga
- We honour and respect others

Diversity and Inclusion
We aspire to be a workplace that values and utilises diverse and inclusive thinking, people and behaviours. This means that our staff reflect the diversity of New Zealand and the countries we work in, and that the contributions of staff with diverse backgrounds, experiences, skills and perspectives are valued and respected.
About the Group

Pacific and Development Group (PDG) leads an integrated approach to New Zealand’s diplomatic and development engagement with Pacific countries and is responsible for the delivery of the New Zealand Aid Programme in the Pacific and globally.

About the Division

The Sustainable Development Sector and Thematic Division (DST) provides the sector and thematic expertise, analysis and advice needed to deliver high quality development cooperation. It also manages a range of aid investments on behalf of bilateral and regional Divisions in PDG.

The Division is made up of five business units: Human Development; Governance and Economics; Climate Change and Environment; Infrastructure and Energy; and Agriculture and Tourism.

Across the sector and thematic areas it is responsible for, DST offers two service levels to PDG’s Divisions: advisory only; or advisory plus aid delivery. Advisory only services are provided for health, education, governance, private sector, economics, and tourism. DST offers greater support with aid investment design and management for climate change, environment, energy, infrastructure, agriculture, and ICT activities.

The Division also manages a number of Pacific regional activities across all of the sector/thematic areas it supports, and is responsible for developing PDG’s policy positions on issues relevant to the sector or thematic areas that it covers.

About the Position

This role sits within the Human Development Unit in the DST Division.

Human Development (HD) covers policy and issues relating to education, health and labour mobility. The Pacific region is a priority focus for engagement in these areas. The work of the HD team contributes to developing human capacity and potential that lets ordinary people make choices for their social and economic well-being.

The key purpose of this role is to provide technical advice on aid investments and develop policy advice in education and human development. The role also manages aid investments in the education sector.
