

NZ-EU FTA: STEPS TO ENTRY INFO FORCE

BETWEEN NOW AND MID 2024*

Negotiations concluded on all issues

New Zealand releases the final text of the FTA
and a National Interest Analysis (NIA)

1

CONCLUSION

June 2022

2

DRAFT TEXT RELEASED

July 2022 and November 2022 (following legal verification)

3

SIGNATURE

July 2023

4

FINAL TEXT AND NIA RELEASED

5

PARLIAMENTARY TREATY EXAMINATION

from July 2023

The Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade Committee (FADTC) examines the FTA and provides a report to the House for its review.

6

IMPLEMENTING LEGISLATION

to be introduced early 2024

Parliament considers legislation required to implement the FTA

WE ARE HERE

7

RATIFICATION AND ENTRY INTO FORCE

by mid-2024*

New Zealand and the EU are ready for the FTA to enter into force

Following signature, the EU will follow their own process including approval by the European Parliament. Both parties must complete required legal processes before the FTA can enter into force.

* Subject to both Parties completing all required processes.
 The National Interest Analysis is a report setting out what is in the FTA and how it affects New Zealanders.